

Programs for Women's Church Groups
Offered by Stephanie Grace Whitson

A Patchwork Life

Stephanie's personal faith journey experiencing God's faithfulness through losing her husband of almost twenty-eight years to cancer, accepting widowhood, and subsequently learning to trust God in a new marriage with a blended family.

Women of the Word

Practical tips for busy women and an encouraging reminder to daily interact with God's greatest gift to womankind. Help with setting realistic goals to enhance the time spent with "the only book God ever wrote."

Got Hope?

Hope can survive, even in the darkest moments of life. Encouragement based on Stephanie's personal experience—and what she learned from her failures.

Giving Comfort

Grief-tested strategies for knowing what to say and what to do when friends face tough times. Based on Stephanie's book How to Help a Grieving Friend.

Award-winning, best-selling novelist Stephanie Grace Whitson celebrated her 20th anniversary as a published novelist in 2014. A lifelong learner, she received her MA in Historical Studies from Nebraska Wesleyan University in 2012. Stephanie is a frequent lecturer/guest speaker for civic organizations, libraries, quilt guilds, and church groups. Her husband and blended family, her church, historical research, antique quilts, and Kitty—her motorcycle—all rank high on her list of "favorite things."
